

Nieuw in het ERK: WATCHING TV, FILM AND VIDEO

This includes live and recorded video material plus, at higher levels, film. Key concepts:

- ▶ following changes of topic and identifying main points;
- ▶ identifying details, nuances and implied meaning (C levels);
- ▶ delivery: from slow, clear standard usage to the ability to handle slang and idiomatic usage.

Can follow films employing a considerable degree of slang and idiomatic usage.

Can understand in detail the arguments presented in demanding television broadcasts such as current affairs programmes, interviews, discussion programmes and chat shows.

C1

Can understand nuances and implied meaning in most films, plays and TV programmes, provided these are delivered in the standard language.

Can extract the main points from the arguments and discussion in news and current affairs programmes.

B2

Can understand most TV news and current affairs programmes.

Can understand documentaries, live interviews, talk shows, plays and the majority of films in the standard form of the language.

Can understand a large part of many TV programmes on topics of personal interest such as interviews, short lectures, and news reports when the delivery is relatively slow and clear.

B1

Can follow many films in which visuals and action carry much of the storyline, and which are delivered clearly in straightforward language.

Can catch the main points in TV programmes on familiar topics when the delivery is relatively slow and clear.

Can identify the main point of TV news items reporting events, accidents etc. where the visual supports the commentary.

A2

Can follow a TV commercial or a trailer for or scene from a film, understanding what the actors are talking about, provided that the images are a great help in understanding and the delivery is clear and relatively slow.

A1

Can recognise familiar words and phrases and identify the topics in headline news summaries and many of the products in advertisements, by exploiting visual information and general knowledge.
